

HORTICULTURE CURRICULA

Horticulture is defined as the “art and science of garden cultivation and management.” In the purest sense, being a Horticulturist means being an expert on growing and caring for plants of various types and species. However, in the modern horticulture profession, it often takes additional technical skills to successfully grow, design, install, and maintain plants and landscapes.

Credentials

Degrees

- Horticulture Technology, A.A.S. (<https://catalog.ptc.edu/academic-programs/industrial-technology/horticulture-curricula/horticulture-technology-aas/>)

Certificates

- Greenhouse Management, Certificate (<https://catalog.ptc.edu/academic-programs/industrial-technology/horticulture-curricula/greenhouse-management-certificate/>)
- Landscape Design and Installation, Certificate (<https://catalog.ptc.edu/academic-programs/industrial-technology/horticulture-curricula/landscape-design-installation-certificate/>)
- Landscape Management, Certificate (<https://catalog.ptc.edu/academic-programs/industrial-technology/horticulture-curricula/landscape-management-certificate/>)
- Turfgrass Management, Certificate (<https://catalog.ptc.edu/academic-programs/industrial-technology/horticulture-curricula/turfgrass-management-certificate/>)