

PLACEMENT TEST

Piedmont Technical College's placement test is a tool that helps place new college students into courses to ensure their ability to succeed in meeting their educational goals. Through this assessment, students learn how their skills compare with the skills needed to pursue specific college courses and if prerequisite developmental or transitional courses are required.

To schedule a testing appointment, visit the Testing Center webpage.

Schedule an Appointment (<https://www.ptc.edu/college-resources/academic-resources/testing-center/>)