

USE OF COMPUTERS

It is the policy of Piedmont Technical College to allow students to use the computer resources for educational purposes or for conducting college business, such as registration or processing financial aid applications. Students who use the computer resources for any other activity deemed to be inappropriate will be asked to suspend such activity. Continued inappropriate use may lead to disciplinary action according to the South Carolina Student Code of Conduct.